What do you like to sing in worship? Pastor Peter has included an insert in the announcements, to ask you that very question. As he shared in the Congregation Forum last month, this is a part of not just learning about our worship preferences, but also the poetry and images that resonate with us. Our songs and hymns are an expression of the things that challenge us, excite us, and send us forth in mission. By learning our most favorites and our least favorites, he is also learning about Our Savior's Lutheran Church, its joys, and its passions. After you fill it out, please leave it on the altar as an offering, and he will pick them up on Thursday when he is next in town.
